

ACCOMMODATION RULES AND GENERAL INFORMATION

1. Accommodation of guests at Pension u Tetřeva (hereinafter referred to as “the pension”) is carried out on the basis of a confirmed e-mail (restauraceutetрева@seznam.cz), on the basis of which the pension provides temporary accommodation to the guest under an agreed period and price. The guest undertakes to pay the pension for the accommodation and related services. The rights and obligations of the contracting parties are governed by these accommodation rules and the price list of the pension.

A reservation becomes binding upon payment of the reservation deposit for the stay. The remaining balance is payable in cash upon arrival or by bank transfer before the start of the stay.

Bank account number: 2161122163/0800, IBAN: CZ56 0800 0000 0021 6112 2163, BIC: GIBACZPX, held at Česká spořitelna a.s.

Account owner/operator: Jindřich Kolesa

2. Upon arrival at the pension, the guest is required to present a valid identity document — an ID card or passport. Based on its presentation, the guest is registered for accommodation.

After check-in, the guest is given a room key. The guest is obliged to prevent the loss, damage, or destruction of the key. In case of loss, the pension is entitled to claim compensation. Upon departure, the guest must return the key.

3. The number of persons in the room must correspond to the number of registered guests. Guests may not, without the consent of the pension, allow other persons to use the accommodation areas. Visitors may only be received in the room with the knowledge of the owner.

By providing consent to processing, the guest agrees to the processing and storage of their personal data for the purpose of accommodation and guest registration under Act No. 565/1990 Coll., on local fees, and Act No. 326/1999 Coll., on the residence of foreigners in the Czech Republic and the amendment of certain other acts. More detailed information about guest records is governed by generally binding legal regulations.

4. The pension is entitled to use the guest's personal data (name, address, e-mail address, telephone number) for business and marketing communications and to inform about planned events and services. If the guest disagrees, they may notify the pension, and such communication will not be sent.
5. In special cases (e.g. due to a room failure, late arrival, etc.), the pension may offer alternative accommodation other than originally booked. Such accommodation shall be considered equivalent and of a similar category, as it is an adequate substitute in another accommodation facility.

6. The use of the pension's facilities is prohibited for persons suffering from infectious diseases.
7. If the guest requests accommodation earlier than the usual check-in time (from 14:00), the pension may charge an additional fee for early check-in. The pension must inform the guest of this in advance.
On the day of arrival, the room is available from 2:00 p.m.
On the day of departure, the guest must vacate the room no later than 11:00 a.m.
Later departures may be permitted only by the owner or a representative of the pension.

The pension is not responsible for valuables. When leaving the room, the guest must close the windows and balcony doors, turn off water taps, and lock the entrance door. If windows and doors are not properly closed, the pension bears no responsibility for the safety of personal belongings left in the room.

8. The room is equipped according to the pension's category standards. Guests are requested not to move furniture or make any significant changes to the room. The pension may charge guests for damages caused by such handling.
The pension is non-smoking; please respect the smoking ban in all areas of the building.
Guests are responsible for any damage caused to the property of the pension in accordance with applicable Czech law, particularly the Civil Code No. 89/2012 Coll.
(Damage to inventory also includes cooking in the room or smoking inside the building.)

10.

For safety reasons, guests may only use electrical appliances in their rooms that are intended for personal hygiene (e.g. electric shaver, toothbrush, etc.). Guests may also use low-voltage devices for personal use, such as laptops, chargers for cameras, cameras, mobile phones, etc.

It is forbidden to use electric kettles, various water heaters, irons, or similar appliances. Any interference with the electrical network is strictly prohibited.

Dogs and other animals may be accommodated only with the consent of the pension. The guest bears full responsibility for the behavior of their animal in the pension and is obliged to compensate for any damage caused by the animal.

The price for accommodating an animal is determined according to the valid pension price list. In the case of noise or damage, the hotel reserves the right to terminate the reservation immediately and without compensation.

12. Breakfast

Breakfast is served in the restaurant from 9:00 to 10:00 a.m.

13.

For security reasons, common areas may be monitored by a camera system. In accordance with the decision of the Office for Personal Data Protection, camera recordings are stored for a maximum of 3 days.

14.

It is possible to park your vehicle in designated areas. The pension does not assume any responsibility for any damage caused to vehicles parked in these areas.

Payment Terms, Cancellation Policy, and Price List

1. The guest is obliged to pay the accommodation price in accordance with the agreed price or the valid pension price list.
2. The pension requires the guest to pay a deposit or prepayment for the accommodation.
The balance must be paid in cash on arrival or by bank transfer before the start of the stay.

Final Provisions

1. The guest is obliged to familiarize themselves with the accommodation rules and comply with them.

They must use the pension's premises properly, maintain cleanliness and order, and protect the equipment and furnishings from damage; any damage caused must be reported immediately.

Between 10:00 p.m. and 7:00 a.m., guests must behave considerately and avoid disturbing others with excessive noise.

2. The guest must comply with all provisions of the Accommodation Rules, as well as safety and fire regulations.

If the guest violates these rules, behaves in a grossly improper manner, breaches good morals, or otherwise fails to fulfill their obligations or exceeds their rights, the pension is entitled to terminate the guest's stay before the agreed period expires.

The guest must fully compensate the pension for any damage caused.

3. Without the consent of the pension, the guest may not:
 - make any changes to the areas designated for accommodation (e.g., move furniture); remove any furnishings or equipment from the pension; smoke in the pension's premises (this does not apply to areas specifically designated for smoking and marked accordingly); use open fire; carry weapons, ammunition, or explosives, or otherwise store them in a ready-to-use condition; possess, manufacture, or consume narcotic or psychotropic substances or poisons unless they are medicines prescribed to the guest by a physician.

CANCELLATION TERMS

A guest may withdraw from the accommodation agreement before the agreed period ends. The pension reserves the right to charge compensation for damages that arise from the guest's premature termination of their stay, as well as cancellation fees in the full amount according to the applicable cancellation policy.

The pension is entitled to charge cancellation fees for bookings under the following conditions:

- A reservation confirmed in writing or by e-mail may be cancelled without a cancellation fee no later than 30 days before arrival, only in writing or by e-mail.
- Cancellation fees in the case of cancellation from 30 to 4 days before the announced arrival are 50% of the total price of the stay.

- If the reservation is cancelled less than 4 days before arrival, or if the guest does not arrive for accommodation, or if the stay is cancelled during the stay, a 100% cancellation fee of the total price of the stay is charged.

In the case of cancellation due to unavoidable events (death in the family, serious illness, natural disaster, government regulation), the cancellation fee may be waived by mutual agreement. The guest must provide written proof of the stated circumstances no later than 3 days after they occur. In case of cancellation for other serious reasons, a change of the date of stay may be agreed upon.

The relationship between the guest and the accommodation provider is governed by these cancellation terms.

Cancellation of a booking must be made only in writing (by e-mail or letter).

The accommodation provider will refund the deposit reduced by the cancellation fee to the accommodated guest within 14 days after receiving the written cancellation notice. These business and cancellation terms remain valid until the accommodation contract between the accommodation provider and the guest is terminated.

We are very pleased that you have chosen Pension U Tetřeva and we believe that you will have a pleasant stay.
